This collection of essays in English urban history covers a period which has been called 'the Dark Ages in English Economic History', on which it directs a revealing light. The essays range from a discussion of the role of ceremony in the civic life of Coventry at teh end of the Middle Ages to the influence of war on London Merchant class at the end of the seventeenth century. This book was first published in 1972.

Bond Verbal Reasoning 11+ Multiple-choice Test Papers Pack 1 are realistic 11+ timed test papers, with full answers included. Each mock test paper enables children to simulate the test, developing critical exam techniques of following instructions, reading the question carefully and time management that will build confidence ahead of the test.

War and politics in the Elizabethan counties reassesses the national war effort during the wars against Spain (1585 – 1603). Drawing on a mass of hitherto neglected sources, it finds a political system in much better health than has been thought, revising many existing assumptions about the weaknesses of the state in the face of military change. It examines politics and government from the court and privy council to the counties and parishes, assessing the central regime as well as the local machinery of lord lieutenancies which provided troops to fight Elizabeth ' s wars and ran the militia which defended against Spanish invasion attempts. The problems of government are assessed in a wide-ranging set of contexts, addressing popular attitudes to the war, government propoganda, local resistance and the problems of governing a country divided in religion. In this way the book covers much more than the war alone, providing a new assessment of the effectiveness of the whole Elizabethan state.

In just one book you will find all the practice tests your child will need for their 11+ test. This book contains two complete mock tests, each one containing a maths paper, an English paper, a reasoning paper (verbal, non-verbal and spatial) and writing. It has been written by an experienced 11+ tutor with over 25 years of teaching experience. Included are full answers and explanations. The questions are challenging and will ensure that your child is ready for the real test.
