This guy I know has one of these little engines it is a F1L 210 D. Does anyone have any information on them? Does it need any type of lift pump to get the fuel to the injector pump to make it run? It is the engine and a clutched type pto setup. Electric start and such. I did a search and most of it is for sale or complete engines for sale overseas type places. I just saw it sitting in his shed ...
