I remained in jobs for years, sending out thousands of resumes, hoping that someone would recognize my value. To make more money, I tried creating my own services and products and desperately searched for ways to market them. I must have tried hundreds of different marketing and promotional methods, with limited and mixed success. What pulled me through was lots of study, specialized training, and practice. More importantly, I believed in myself and the value I could provide to employers and customers for my products and services. At first I was happy to find a new client now and then to make some extra money. But later, I learned how to promote myself effectively and those customers started to come to me. Instead of wasting time, day after day, fruitlessly searching, they sent me emails asking, no demanding, my services and employment. Once you understand the unique importance of LinkedIn, you have found one of the best ways to get employers and clients to come to you. Increase your qualified leads by targeting your LinkedIn to the right audience Decrease the time you spend fruitlessly searching for anyone who will buy your products or services, or offer you a position in their company. Explode the size of your professional network by spending as little as a few hours optimizing your professional brand on LinkedIn By defining your personal brand and writing an effective message, you can effectively grow a professional network which looks to you for answers.
