"Magnolia" by Kristi Cook is a book for anyone who loves YA romance. Jemma and Ryder have been next door neighbors for years; their families are best friends and have been for generations. According to family legend, back during the Civil War, Jemma's ancestor and Ryder's ancestor saved one another and have been friends ever since.

Magnolia (Magnolia Branch, #1) by Kristi Cook

Magnolia by Kristi Cook is light and fluffy, and it's a perfect "boy next door" book. I had so much fun reading it and couldn't really put it down. What I liked Our main character, Jemma, is snarky and adorable. She's proud to be Southern, loves her small town, but she's smart enough to want bigger things for herself. I really liked her!

Magnolia, Kristi Cook

So it was quite refreshing to pick up Magnolia by Kristi Cook, a story that promised Romeo and Juliet in reverse. And despite a heroine and hero who are a little too close to perfect, this book delivered on that promise. In the town of Magnolia Branch, Mississippi, the Cafferty and Marsden families are practically southern royalty.

Magnolia by Kristi Cook : All About Romance

Instead of having 10 to 12 people cook on site, Haley partnered with Sweet Magnolia's Catering to create 60 grab-and-go meals so families could still have their Thanksgiving tradition.
