Copyrighted material like the service manual would draw the wrong kind of attention should certain entities find out. Even those less pricey copies are not legal. But not to worry too much since it's the seller who is on the hook legally. At least until that material goes into the public domain in the far future.

Things like that would have me reluctant to use the "wrong" service manual; even if I knew that I shouldn't follow it, I might make a mistake . BTW, I can verify that the Spirit and Tourer are in the same service manual for 1997 through 2006. The ACE should be the same for 1995 through 1999 so Oddbald's pdf should be good for 1996. (I use a ...
