In Toward a True Kinship of Faiths, the Dalai Lama also explores where differences between religions can be genuinely appreciated instead of becoming sources of conflict. Creating genuine harmony does not depend on accepting that all religions are fundamentally the same or that they lead to the same place.

"Toward a True Kinship of Faiths" by the Dalai Lama is well worth the read regardless of your religious or non religious beliefs, and I cannot recommend it enough. In it, he lays out an argument for how we as humans can focus on our common ethic of compassion "Make the vow today that you shall never allow your faith to be used as an instrument of violence.

towards humans but also towards the earth and all living things. This can unite us, even as we continue to practise our own faiths. Toward a True Kinship of Faiths is an excellent account of an autobiographical journey into interfaith relationships and theology. As he moves among other faiths, Buddhism remains his grounding.
